Cup of Joe Book and Notion Review

We here at Quilt N Go just love new books and notions. We feel so lucky to be around them everyday we work. We do realize, however, that our customers can't always afford to buy every single new book and notion that comes out! So we have decided to help you narrow down what books and notions are really great to put on your MUST BUY list. Each newsletter a member of our staff will review a new book or notion.

Accu-Cut Die Cutter

We have added the Rag Quilt die for our die cutter. Now you don't have to do all the clipping of the seams. Just turn the handle with your fabric on the die and it will make all the cuts. Check out our sample.
