

Get rid of the wrinkles

Before you begin to stitch the binding on your quilt, baste 1/8 inch all the way around your quilt - securing the quilt top, batting and backing.

That way, all the layers will move together as you attach the binding, and you are less likely to get puckers and wrinkles as you attach the binding.